

A 'CONVERSATIONS' SERIES: PHILOSOPHY IS INQUIRY

"The unexamined life is not worth living."
- Socrates

An open invitation to anyone aged 18-30.

Melbourne School of Philosophy is delighted to offer an interactive series of three talks that have been designed for people wondering about life's bigger questions, or for those who may be interested in Philosophy itself, but have little or no experience with the subject. The course is intended to give a simple 'snapshot' of how philosophy may be practical in everyday life.

Dates: Saturday, 14th, 28th June and the 12th July 2025 from 2pm - 4pm.

Venue: Melbourne School of Philosophy
45 Riversdale Road, Hawthorn VIC 3122

"This is a rare opportunity to have a healthy discussion on topics that impact our generation" - Jordan

"I really enjoyed the meeting last weekend, it was so thought provoking"
- Jess

Using both inquiry and a simple contemplative approach, our conversation will be centred on the idea that 'Philosophy is Inquiry'. Join our discussion on how true wisdom arises from thoughtful questioning and simple reflection. Through open conversation and whole-hearted engagement, we will consider how philosophical thinking can enrich our lives and help us better understand ourselves and the world around us.
